

books from RUSSIA
reading together

Marina Boroditskaya

Marina Boroditskaya (born in Moscow in 1954) is a poet and renowned translator of English verse, including Chaucer (the first Russian translation of «Troilus and Criseyde»), Shakespeare, Donne, the Cavalier poets, Burns, Keats and Kipling. She has published eight poetry collections (see the list below), as well as numerous books for children. Boroditskaya has won poetry diplomas, the Master Translator Prize and three national awards for children's poetry. She has regularly contributed to magazines including «Novy Mir» and «Inostrannaya Literatura» since 1978. Her programme on Radio Russia, «Literary Pharmacy» (the Russian equivalent of «Poetry Please!») stayed on the air for 21 years, 1997 to 2018.

List of poetry collections:

I Am Undressing a Soldier (1994)

Single Skating (1999)

The Year Of The Horse (2002)

It Should Be Possible (2005)

Ode To Myopia (2009)

Cupid On The Windowsill. Love poems (2013)

Still It Spins (2013)

Quiet Games (2019)

КНИГИ ИЗ
РОССИИ

রাশিয়া
থেকে বই

ИИИ
ИНСТИТУТ ПЕРЕВОДА
সাহিত্য অনুবাদ
প্রতিষ্ঠান